Athletic Code of Conduct – Citizenship Policy

Involvement in Dayton Little Guy Football program is an honor and a privilege. As a member of the Dayton Little Guy Football program, I understand that my behavior reflects not only on myself but also on the program, my team and my teammates. To maintain this privilege I agree to respect people and property, be in regular school attendance, and follow all school and Dayton Little Guy Football rules. I understand that failure to follow these guidelines could result in suspension from the program. The Director's and respective coaches will determine the length and severity of the suspension based on each individual circumstance.

Athletic Code of Conduct – Enforcement of Code Violations

An athlete may be suspended from participation for the following Code Violations:

- For any violations of the football rules. The length of the suspension will be dictated by the football rules.
- For any immoral or unacceptable conduct contrary to the ideals, principles and standards of Dayton Little Guy Football and other participating organizations.
- The severity of the violations will determine the severity of the consequence.
- Major violations such as damaging property, use or selling of controlled substances, theft, causing deliberate injury to another person will result in immediate suspension for the remainder of the season.
- Minor incidents such as football rules violations, unexcused absences from practices and games, continued tardiness, demonstrating poor sportsmanship, etc. will result in a suspension based of the number of recurring violations. First offense=one game suspension. Second offense=two games suspensions. Third offense=suspension for the remainder of the season.

If a participant is suspended from school, that suspension will automatically carry over to their participation in the football program. The length of the suspension will duplicate the length of the suspension by the school district. It is the expectation of Dayton Little Guy Football that the player or parent will come forth and report the suspension to the coach and director's.

We have read this document, discussed it together, and agreed to support the standards of the Code of Conduct listed.
